LAKEVILLE, INDIANA

JANUARY 2007

Letter from the President

Greeting Fellow Lions,

This month's dinner meeting will be HAWAIIAN NIGHT. Wear your best Hawaiian shirt or grass skirt. We will be having a Hawaiian dinner. Our guest speaker will be Vice District Governor Lion Dave Eisen. Starting this month, please call in your dinner reservation to Lion Florence Ingle at 784-2597. We are starting a new permanent dinner list so we need EVERYBODY THAT IS COMING TO DINNER TO CALL IN.

Lakeville Lions helped make Christmas in Newton Park a huge success. Lions and their family members took pictures with Santa, worked as elves, sold coloring books and Christmas trees, and gave out popcorn. The money raised by these efforts was combined with donations from companies and organizations that decorated the park, and was used to help needy families in North Liberty and Walkerton. We provided food baskets to 9 families and toys to 30 children. A Big Thanks goes out to HOOSIER TIRE and NEWTON PARK for their cooperation and assistance.

Our Toys for Tots and Christmas Food Basket projects provided food baskets for 55 families and toys for 155 children in the Union-North school district. A Big Thanks goes out to LAVILLE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL for their food drive; it was a huge success.

DUES ARE DUE: If you have not paid your dues, PLEASE DO SO AT ONCE. You can send your dues to Lakeville Lions, P. O. Box 506, Lakeville In 46536

Thanks to the Lakeville Lions

I want to give special thanks to all of the Lakeville Lions who gave their time, efforts, and talents that emphasizes the LION motto "WE SERVE" in making the Lakeville Community Food and "Toys for Tots" Project 2006 an overwhelming success. The Lakeville Elementary School's food drive and the community support of the "Toys for Tots" drive made sure that the Christmas Season was joyous for 55 families with 155 children. Each food basket contained a ham provided by the Lakeville Lions Club. Some families took a Christmas tree home. Extra toys, soft stuffed animals, stocking stuffers, and books from the U.S Marine Corps allowed each child to receive 1 soft stuffed animal, 2 appropriate toys, 3 stocking stuffers, and 3-4 books. Lion Santa stopped by from his busy schedule to help the children make their selection. Each child had their picture taken with Lion Santa as a remembrance of this unforgettable event. Some of the children I observed with Lion Santa could have been a little on the older side. Are we not all children at heart?

A special thanks to Lion Dave Grenert for the use of his building, his supply of coffee and donuts on the "Blitz Day". Also, a special thank-you to Dee Grenert, Dave's daughter, for the great pictures and article, on the front page of the December 26, 2006 Plymouth Pilot.
